My dearest love, a woman of high worth,
Values, ethics, morals, a treasure on earth,
Dignity and femininity radiate from her core,
And her articulate speech leaves me wanting more.
Inner beauty, the charm that captivates me,
Her tenderness and sensitivity, so easy to see,
She's the one I love, a diplomat so fine,
Above attachments, yet her friendship divine.
Focused on her goals, relationships she has none,
But her personality, values, and vision stun,
Humility and ability to lead, a rare find,
She gels with everyone, a heart so kind.
From Mangalore, this woman stole my heart,
Her essence so pure, she's a work of art,
I hope one day she'll desire love from me,
For my heart beats only for her, can't you see?
My love, let our hearts unite,
In a love that's pure and right,
Let's embrace this love and make it strong,
Together forever, where we belong.
